SAY SOMETHING NICE ABOUT RUBY. Since Ruby Jacobson's death Sunday, her friends have been calling to describe her indomitable courage in the face of death, her wonderful work with young people and her inspiration to others as a model wife and mother. Cheerful and more interested in the welfare of others than herself to the end, Ruby Jacobson has left a legacy of love, understanding and helpfulness in the hearts of her family and friends.

SALLY RAND, the fan dancer, came to Flowerland Nursery at 54 Solano a week ago last night to buy about $50 worth of plants for the patio of her apartment in San Francisco. She told John Cook of Flowerland that the Goshans, who own the Gay 90's, where she is currently entertaining, recommended Flowerland to her. Cook said Miss Rand was dressed like an average housewife and that he didn't recognize her until she told him where to deliver the merchandise.

Ed Babros Injured Sept. 1 By Wild Shotgun Blast

Ed Babros, employee of the Albany Parks department who lives at 1350 Solano Ave., didn't really want to go dove hunting Sept. 1, opening day of the season, but he accompanied his brother, George, and Leonard Cabral anyway.

Within minutes of their arrival at a spot near Brentwood, Ed was felled by a wild blast of a 20-gauge shotgun in the hands of a 14-year-old boy who was hunting for the first time.

According to Mrs. Babros, Ed's back and legs were penetrated by 130 pieces of lead plus one lodged in his elbow, two in his upper left arm and six in his wallet, which fortunately was in a back pocket.

His wife said he had been facing the direction of the shot but moments before. He had turned to aim at a dove.

The boy said he was getting a shell in place, didn't realize he had his finger on the trigger and the gun went off by accident. Both he and his father, who was with him, did everything they could to help the injured Albany man.

Bleeding profusely and in great pain, Babros was taken by his two companions on a frantic search for medical aid, almost impossible because it was 6:30 in the morning. At one hospital, he was given medication for pain, but he had to be taken to Alta Bates hospital in Berkeley for any real attention. The family doctor, Dr. John H. Masters of Albany, was there within minutes for the first time.

Some of the pellets carried bits of clothing with them into the Albany man's body. Because of the danger of infection, Ed will be a patient at the hospital until it is safe to go home.

Mrs. Babros, who with her husband, manages Vanguard apartments says they are lucky because the blast hit him in the back instead of the front of his body, that it was aimed low rather than toward his head and chest, and because the boy was 40 feet away and not any closer. He is in room 430 of Alta Bates.

TRANSFERS AREN'T THAT BIG—BUT THE PRIVILEGES ARE. Mrs. Max Etingoff and son, Jon, of 865 San Pablo Ave., Albany, hear about AC Transit's new "Stop-off and Go-Again" transfer plan from bus driver W. H. "Bill" Dawson. By using a regular transfer, residents can hop off a bus, do some neighborhood shopping and hop back on, without paying an extra fare.

AC Transit Expands Transfer Privileges at No Extra Fare

AC Transit expanded its transfer privileges this week, making neighborhood shopping trips and other expeditions as easy for Albany residents as jumping on and off a bus.

Offered for the first time anywhere, to all transit riders in the district, the new "stop-off and go-again" plan permits additional bus riding at no extra fare.

Using a regular transfer, passengers can get off where they wish, do some shopping, errands or a bit of visiting, then get back on the same line or another line, at any regular bus stop.

Riders can "stop and go" as many times as they want, as long as they do not reverse their route and head back on a "round trip." Time restrictions will remain unchanged, varying from one to three hours, depending on the line.

By using the transfer on any bus, residents will be able to use regular service for several shopping or business calls along the way, while traveling on an original fare, according to William E. Berk, Albany's representative on the district's board of directors.

He added that the change was made to enable riders to transfer where it is most convenient to them—another innovation by the district to make bus riding easier, as well as more economical, than driving a car.

One of the biggest advantages of the new plan is that it allows passengers to get off a bus and then board a different coach on the same line to continue a trip. The "shop-over" privileges are expected to benefit local business districts, as well as riders, who no longer will have to transfer at designated points.

Transbay commuters are enjoying the same privileges on homeward bound trips from San Francisco, giving them the chance to stop off for last minute shopping or errands.

A recipient of a PTA Honorary Life membership in 1963, Mrs. Jacobson was first vice president of Marin PTA, carnival chairman and health chairman. In Albany High PTA, she was audio-visual chairman for several terms, grade representative and had been named historian for that group this year. For two years, she was yard duty supervisor at Marin school. Previously, she had been active at Albany Pre-School.

One of the high lights of her life was seeing her daughter, Judy, off on a Scout trip to Mexico recently after working diligently to help the Girl Scouts raise money for the trip.

Albany Scout leaders have established the Ruby Jacobson campership in her memory. Contributions to the fund may be directed to Neighborhood Chairman Mrs. L. L. Keck, 1223 Portland.

Survivors include her husband, John; daughter, Judith K.; son, Melvin J.; sisters, Amy M. Winchell and Esther Dealy, both of Oakland, and niece, Sigrid Johnson of San Mateo. Other relatives are in Sweden.

Funeral services will be conducted at Ellis-Olson drawing room chapel at 11:30 tomorrow morning by the Rev. Marshall Luckey of Albany First Baptist church. Interment will be in Golden Gate National cemetery, San Bruno.

A native of Alameda, Mrs. Jacobson had lived in Albany 15 years. For 12 years she had been payroll clerk at Emeryville Electric company.

Mrs. Jacobson will, however, be best remembered as a wonderful friend to children, a tireless and dependable worker in every project for the community and youth and for her outstanding spirit with a zest for life so unusual that all who worked with her admired her wonderful qualities.

Whenever there was a community need, Mrs. Jacobson could always be counted upon to do more than her share, whether it was Scout work, PTA, church work or community campaigns such as the March of Dimes.

BOOTH TROPHY—Harold Olson, left, of Ellis-Olson Mortuary presents the trophy for the most popular Art Show and Bazaar booth to Elmer Holm of the Senior Division of Albany Little League. The league's Dunk-the-Manager booth won the award by vote of those attending the three-day event. Holm himself reportedly was dunked in the tank 57 times. George Fiderio has the trophy on display at Albany Tire Co. on San Pablo Ave. He sponsored the prize-winning booth.

Heart Association Offers Tips to Deer Hunters

Hunting season is here again, but with a little bit of forethought it need not be open season on hunters.

Among the hazards of hunting is accidental death from a gun shot—one's own gun, or that of another hunter. Not so dramatic, but at least three times as prevalent is the tragedy of heart attack deaths.

Unlike the deer, who can only try to outrun their stalkers, hunters can take certain precautions to avoid falling prey to the risks of the hunt. Here are some recommendations from the Alameda County Heart Association to help bring hunters back alive.

First off, ask yourself this question: Do I have the heart to hunt? It's not sentiment or ethics we're concerned about here, but the condition of your heart.

Deer hunting often demands a level of energy output which may be triple or quadruple the level at which most part-time hunters operate during the rest of the year. Extremes of weather, change of altitude, rough terrain and the stress of the chase can levy a heavy tax on the heart's capacity.

In a unique series of experiments, the Minnesota Heart Association recently measured the heart stress on a deer hunter "who not only gets his deer but who drags it out of the woods single-handed." It was too much, they found, for 11 per cent of a pre-screened group of men over 40 who had no evidence of heart trouble. The men who underwent the tests had previously been examined and found to have apparently normal hearts. It's obvious, therefore, that the hazards to an unexamined cross-section of hunters over 40 would be higher.

Last year in the State of California there were more than 1,294,948 hunting licenses, tags, permits and stamps issued. To those California hunters who live in Alameda County, the local Heart Association has this message:

Have a complete physical examination before you plan your hunting trip. Then your doctor can, if necessary, suggest ways in which you can pace yourself, get your deer, and at the same time minimize the strains on your heart.

Number one on his list would be: Don't drag the bag! When you've downed your deer, let him lie until you can get a couple of able-bodied men to help move the carcass. And if you have a heart condition, let them do this job without you. Make your contribution to the hunting party in a less strenuous way.

Number two: If you have a heart condition, take at least one member of your party into your confidence. Tell him what medicine you take, how it is given and the symptoms which indicate the need for medication. He should know which pocket you keep it in, and the container should carry clearly typed instructions.

Number three: The heart may be a lonely hunter, but you shouldn't be. Never hunt alone.

Number four: Get a good rest—preferably a full night's sleep—before you set out to hunt.

Number five: If you're hunting at a higher altitude, go a few days early. This will give your heart time to adjust to the lower oxygen content of the thin air before the stresses and strains of hunting are added.

Number six: Rest as often and as long as you have to, before you get too tired, take your stand near camp and let the others flush.

And for all hunters, the Heart Association has this advice:

Condition yourself for any unusual physical exertion with an increasing schedule of exercise in preparation for the trip... choose lightweight but warm clothing to lighten the load on your heart... know simple first-aid rules... be moderate about eating and drinking... observe the standard safety rules for handling firearms.

Remember, the biggest game is getting back in good shape. If you take as good care of yourself as you do of your gear, you can enjoy hunting for many seasons to come. The hunter is even more important than the game.

In the United States, fats usually account for 40-45 per cent of total calories consumed. Alameda County Heart Association physicians feel that this level could be safely cut down to about 30-35 per cent. Well-balanced meals are necessary to everyone's good health, and by broiling, roasting and baking methods of cooking, excess fats can be "cooked out" of most meats.

Lincoln Ceremony Unites Chere Creer, Don Biagi

A ceremony in the Community Methodist church in Lincoln Sunday afternoon, Aug. 15, was the setting for the marriage of Chere Creer and Donald J. Biagi. Rev.
Ben Rice of Brentwood, Calif., read the marriage lines, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride wore white silk organza over taffeta, appliqued with Alencon lace, bateau neckline and long sleeves. The skirt was floor length with chapel train, and she wore a caplet of flower petals with seed pearls. Her flowers were stephanotis with butterfly orchids, framed by a yellow carved fan.

Miss Sheila Bacus of Tahoe Vista, was the bride's maid of honor. She was gown in yellow organza over taffeta, bell skirt in floor length, and scoop neckline. Her hat was yellow, circled with flowers around the crown, and she carried yellow carnations framed with a carved fan.

The bride's sister Shelley was bridesmaid and Nancy Krotzer of San Bernardino had charge of the guest book. Their gowns were the same as the bridesmaid.
Deborah and Donald Reidel were flower girl and ring bearer respectively. Paul Richardson of Sacramento was best man and the ushers were Ray Guidi of Stockton and Mike Brodie of Martinez.

A reception with 200 guests in the Veterans Memorial hall followed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Creer of Lincoln. She is a graduate of Lincoln High school and is a senior in Sacramento State college.
She is a past honored queen of Job's Daughters and past state representative to the state of Kansas, 1964-65. Biagi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Biagi of Albany. He is a graduate of Albany
High school and Sacramento State, where he was captain of the track team for 1964-65, and is a member of the National Collegiate Athletics Association.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a white linen suit with white accessories. Following a honeymoon touring Northern California, the newlyweds will establish their home in Sacramento.

Ray H. Nagel, Senior Employee Of Regional Lab, Retiring

Ray H. Nagel, who has served the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Western Regional Research Laboratory in Albany longer than any other present employee, is retiring. Friday will be his last day.

Nagel was one of two staff officers who arrived in the area in February, 1939. Congress had provided for four regional utilization laboratories in 1938. Land had been acquired for the Western lab. In November, 1940, the incomplete building was occupied by the increasing staff. Temporary offices had been used in the University and at Berkeley Square on Shattuck.

As a research chemist, Nagel

Ray H. Nagel

had worked for the Department's Bureau of Chemistry and Soils at Arlington Farm, D.C., and at the soybean laboratory in Urbana, Ill.

Letters

Copy of letter sent to Albany City Council:

I protest the demands of people who live in Berkeley. That we the taxpayers of Albany must pay for filthy reading material for them to read.

I do not think a resident of Berkeley has any right to tell our Council what or what not to do.

Of the 27 persons signing a recent letter in the Berkeley Gazette, 18 were Berkeley residents and only nine from Albany.

I was very much surprised at the decision of the Albany Library commission. I had higher regard for them than that.

I wish to commend Councilmen Parker and Egenberger for their stand on filthy reading material.

Also commend Mr. Howell for his stand against the Lucky 13 club when he was a councilman.

I am very sorry the other members and Chief Jensen did not back him up.

Editor, the Times:

As chairman of the Albany Republican Assembly Art Show booth, I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank all the dedicated workers, who gave tirelessly of their time, to help make our booth such a tremendous success.

Those attending the Art Show were given an opportunity to vote for their favorite booth and the Albany Republican Assembly booth took second place as being the most popular booth at the show, the Albany Senior Little League booth having taken first place.

Not only did we serve food to satisfy the appetite, but we also had a wonderful opportunity to give food for thought regarding Republicanism, which stands for freedom, with responsibility, under God for all people and peace, with dignity and honor, for all nations.

I would like to extend a special invitation to all who would like to come and be a part of a growing organization that has at heart not only the best interest of the City of Albany but of our great country. We meet the fourth Wednesday of each month at the Cornell School cafeteria in Albany at 8 p.m. Come and join us.

RICHARD J. CROMMIE

Richard J. Crommie, 30, of 1069 Kains, resident of Albany for 22 years and a graduate of St. Mary's high school, died suddenly. Requiem Mass was offered Aug. 30 at St. Ambrose Catholic church. Interment was in St. Augustine's cemetery in Pleasanton.

Survivors include his parents, Norman and Julia Crommie of the Kains address; brother, David of San Rafael; sisters, Shirley of Albany and Mary Catherine Corona of Berkeley, and a niece, Teresa Marie Corona.

The ordinary citizen, when he thinks of fire alarm, envisions the red box on the street corner that has always presented a temptation to break the glass, pull the handle and see what happens. But today, there are two basic elements in the communication requirements of a modern fire department. One of these is the communications in maintaining units of the department; the other embraces the various devices which provide a means for the prompt reporting of fires to the fire department.

Captain John Hoeth, of the Albany Fire Service, explains that the alarm system in the department has similarities to the nervous system in the body. A network of alarm boxes cover the city ready to transmit a prompt alarm indicating a fire anytime during the day or night. Commercial exchange telephone service is another medium of reporting fire. Fire Chief Gerald Browne praises highly Captain Hoeth and the two men working with him, Firemen Harold Johanand extending the fire communication system within the confines of our city. These men who have been assigned to this specialized service have the responsibility of efficient communications, which calls for a 24-hour vigilance.

Today, Albany is covered by a network of 82 boxes plus two private systems that are available for the transmitting of fire alarms at all times. Recently three master boxes have been installed that connect auxiliary boxes to our city alarm system and another system is presently being installed. One of these auxiliary systems is at the Blind Center and the others have greatly increased the efficiency of fire

El Cerrito's first home-owned theatrical premier, a new mystery written, directed, staged, costumed and lit by El Cerritos with three hometowners featured in the cast is at the count down stage as the Contra Costa Civic Theatre readies its premier performance of Louis Flynn's new mystery, "The Governor of the Island" for blast off Friday, September 24, at the corner of San Pablo and Blake Street, El Cerrito.

CCCT, El Cerrito's oldest and only resident theatre, marks its first bona-fide premier with "The Governor of the Island." The year-old theatre group parlayed Flynn's first play, "The Orchid Sandwich" into the impetus for CCCT's founding but "Orchid" premiered in Richmond while "The Governor of the Island" is El Cerrito's all the way.

Two El Cerritos, Alan and David Hughes will introduce a new staging concept for "Governor." Betty McCarthy, another El Cerritan has designed the costumes; Catherine McAndrews, yet another El Cerritan has devised the light plot with an assist from her son, Larry; two El Cerritos, Elizabeth Ahlas and Dan Herrera, both well-known throughout the Bay Area for their stage work are featured in the cast and Flynn directs his own play and will portray the title role.

Out of the near 100 actors and actresses trying out for "The Governor of the Island," Flynn selected Evelyn Ernst, who brings over 20 years of acting and experience in every phase of theatre to the role of Rosanna. Miss Ernst has starred at CCCT in "Medea," "Our Town," "Melody," "My Fair Lady," the Jewish Community Theatre's "Watch On the Rhine" and has worked with theatres throughout the Bay Area.

Bill Howard marks his first appearance at CCCT in the role of the Major and has recently completed a string of starring roles with theatres in Oakland, Castro Valley, San Ramon, Bridge Bay and was last seen in the Alameda production of "They Knew What They Wanted," pulling down critical acclaim.

Dorothy Eaton has just completed the starring role in Alameda's "Death of a Salesman," starred with the Orb Theatre in San Francisco in Ionesco's "The Lesson," spent seven years studying and teaching with the late Myra Alexander Gilbert, worked with the California College of Arts and Crafts and is well respected throughout Bay Area.

John Chinowsky plays Collins in "The Governor of the Island." Miss Chinowsky is a long-time CCCT audience pleaser. She first starred in Flynn's rewrite of "The Women," as Judy in "Send Me No Flowers" (touring company as well as the El Cerrito run) and knocked them dead in the role of the maid in "Anni-versary Waltz." Miss Chinowsky is active with the University of California drama groups and has worked east coast summer stock.

As the Colonel, James Stanislawsky, fresh from the hole of the former president in Alameda's "Best Man," returns again to CCCT. He has starred with CCCT's touring and home com-

BUSY MRS. ELDON WOLF HEADS MARIN PTA

Mrs. Eldon (Marion) Wolf, resident of Albany for the past 17 years, has added to her already busy schedule that of Marin School PTA president.

PTA is not new to Mrs. Wolf—she has just finished two years as president of Albany High School and served on the Administrative Committee for Accreditation of Albany High School. For the past 14 years she has served in just about every capacity at Marin School, including delegate to the Council of Berkeley-Albany PTA Council.

She has been a Girl Scout leader with troops 116 and 124 for 10 years and a former den mother. She served three years as Site Chairman of the Day Camp Committee of the Berkeley-Albany Kensington Girl Scout Council and worked as a unit leader prior to being director of Brownie Day Camp for two years. She was on the Round-Up Parents' Committee two years ago when her daughter, Andrea, was chosen to visit Button Bay, Vermont, with 8,500 other girls for the Senior Girl Scout International Round-up. She was leader for the Senior Girl Scout troop 1124, now graduated, and last year assumed Cadette troop 1094 leadership.

She was office manager last year for the Junior Bach Festival and assisted with Albany Jaycee committees, when her husband was president of the organizations. They also served as co-chairmen of the Albany High Band Boosters.

The National Foundation is another organization in which Mrs. Wolf shows much interest. After helping to organize the first Albany March of Dimes Fashion Show as a representative of the Northbrae Jr. Women's club, she has participated each year after. She marches in each Mothers' March and has been a volunteer in many of the polio clinics held in Albany.

She has served as vice-chairman of the United Crusade for Albany and trained other volunteers during three of her 10 years with this organization.

She has served in other fundraising campaigns, the cerebral palsy drive, cancer, and the heart fund.

A past president of Albany Pre-School Mothers' club, Mrs. Wolf was a participating mother for 10 years in the school and until last year served as the Assistant Director.

Camping is a favorite pastime, but sewing is her favorite hobby and she does turn out beautiful garments.

When asked what she would like to see happen during her year in office, Mrs. Wolf answered, "I would wish to make parents more aware of their children. Too many of us are apathetic, busy, indifferent—not realizing the swiftness of time. If the Marin PTA could help parents stop, take a breath and see this growing child, enjoy and understand him, this would be a great contribution to school, home and community."

Mrs. Wolf has four children—Andrea, 18, a sophomore music major at Cal State in Hayward, Galin, 16, Deborah, 13, and Dana, 11.

Albany Receives AAA Award for Pedestrian Safety
Albany was presented with a "Pedestrian Safety Citation" award from the American Automobile Association for its achievement of no pedestrian deaths in 1964. The citation, recognizing the city for its accomplishments in the AAA nationwide Pedestrian Safety Inventory Program, was presented to Mayor Lewis M. Howell by W. A. Ronchetto, district manager of the California State Automobile Association. In commenting on the award Mr. Ronchetto said: "Pedestrian traffic fatalities across the nation last year totaled 8,900. This contrasts with 15,500 pedestrian fatalities in 1937, the year the AAA Pedestrian Safety Program was launched. The encouraging reduction in pedestrian deaths can be directly attributed to the excellent record made in other cities. Our city now has a record of two years with single pedestrian traffic fatalities.
